

RAIN MAY AFFECT ELECTION RESULT

BAD WEATHER IS FORECAST

Would Keep Thousands of Voters
in Isolated Districts From Reaching Polls

BIG VOTE EXPECTED

Difficult Task of Ballot Counters
May Delay Final Result Becoming Known

New York, Nov. 1.—The seven Presidential candidates of 1920
tonight had submitted their case
to the jury and awaited tomorrow
the verdict of the electorate.

The bustle of months ended tonight at national headquarters,
where campaign strategists rested
their summing-up complete.
The candidates retired to seclusion
to receive the decision of the American people.

With the voters rested also the duty of deciding which party
should control the house of representatives. With the electorate of many states rested the duty of choosing governors and legislatures.

Seasoned campaigners reckoned that at this stage, skies played nearly as heavy a role as workers whose period of service had ended. For the
this alone would determine the turnout of voters, particularly in isolated sections of the country, where heavy rains would upset the best-laid plans
for transporting voters to the polls.

There are districts which, when streams are flooded, cannot be crossed even on rafts, and in certain states where the contest is close, every ballot plays its part.

The weather man's prediction.
In general, this is what the weather
man had to say of a western disturbance which appeared today over Iowa
and of the prospects tomorrow all over the country:

"The weather disturbance will advance east-northeastward and be attended by unsettled weather and rain Tuesday. Election day, in the Atlantic states, the upper Ohio valley, and the region of the Great Lakes, with some probability of snow in Northern Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. The weather will be clearing and much cooler during Tuesday in the Gulf states, Tennessee, and the Lower Ohio
and Central Mississippi valleys. Fair, cool weather will prevail Tuesday over the plains states, the Rocky mountain states, and all Far Western states."

"In addition of women to those who choose the electoral college, party leaders, of course, expect a vote
readily swollen over that of 1916.
Should the skies open, the downpour
could hardly discourage enough voters to hold the total below that of four years ago. And the ballot counters are not expecting a smaller, but much larger task — so large indeed that the count may possibly not be known until much later than in other Presidential years."

Senator Harding of Ohio, standard bearer of the Republican party, today replied to his home in Marion to await the decision of his countrymen. To his party managers, he left detailed forecasts of the vote, and from Chairman Hays of the Republican national committee, there was forthcoming tonight reiteration of confidence in a Republican victory. Mr. Hays, however, issued no formal statement announcing he chose to remain "mauve"
until the ballots had been counted.

Cox Gives Final Appeal.
Governor Cox, also Ohio's native
son, selected by the League of Nations as its choice for the White House,
tonight delivered his final campaign
address in Toledo and returned to his home in Dayton. Conviction that he will be elected was expressed in a final statement today by Chairman White of the Democratic national committee.

Senator Harding and Governor Cox followed newspaper proprietors have chosen different ways to receive campaign results. With Mrs. Harding,
the senator will receive at their home
holdings compiled by The Associated Press, keeping them advised of the latest totals.

Governor Cox, on the other hand,
will receive election returns at his office in the Dayton News, a member of The Associated Press. Chairman Hays
and White, together with other Republican and Democratic leaders, will gather at their respective headquarters here tomorrow night to receive the returns.

Debs Has Unique Distinction.

chief executive he is, Calvin Coolidge,
Republican vice presidential nominee,
will learn whether or not next year
he is to move to Washington. Frank-

Harding Calmly Awaits Outcome, But Refuses to Make Prediction

Marion, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Putting the stress and worries of his campaign behind him, Senator Harding awaited calmly tonight the decision of his fellow countrymen on his candidacy for the nation's highest office.

He made no prediction of the outcome, but his quiet demeanor and smiling face carried every outward sign of satisfaction and confidence.

"I can only say," he replied to a request for his opinion, "that we have made the best fight we know how to make, and await the result with complacency."

Surrounded by his family and personal friends, he spent election eve at home. Throughout the day, he let down from the strain of the campaign, declined to concern himself with the routine of his headquarters, and spent most of his time chatting about everything but politics, with friends and neighbors who came to see him.

In the afternoon, he talked in jovial vein for an hour with the newspaper correspondents, and he dined quietly at home with Mrs. Harding.
Tomorrow, he expects to vote early in the forenoon, and then motor to a golf course 40 miles away, to tramp over the links while the story of the ballots is telling itself throughout the nation. He will be back at home in time to hear the earliest returns.

Virtually the only attention given to politics by the nominee today was in telephone conferences with Will H. Hays, the Republican national chairman, and Harry M. Daugherty, who was his pre-convention manager. Mr. Hays in New York and Mr. Daugherty in Columbus gave him detailed reports of the outlook which he described as decidedly encouraging.

From Indiana, New Jersey, Illinois and New York, battle grounds
of more than ordinary interest throughout the campaign, the candidate said his information was especially gratifying. He added that he also had received some heartening reports of senatorial races, a feature of the election in which he has taken particular concern.

Although he has spent most of the last month on the stump, Mr.
Harding finishes the campaign in robust condition physically.

Secretary of the navy and Democratic opponent of Governor Coolidge, will watch the progress of the struggle
from his home in Hyde Park, N. Y.
Eugene V. Debs, Presidential candidate of the Socialist party, nominated to run with Seymour Steadman, Chicago lawyer, will have the unique opportunity of learning campaign results in the Atlanta penitentiary, where he is confined for violation of the escape act.

In a Presidential year unique in the number of parties whose candidates are in the field, other contenders for the Presidency and vice presidency
are: Prohibition, Aaron S. Watkins and Leigh Colvin; Farmer-Labor, Perley P. Christensen and Max Hayes; Single Tax, Robert C. Macaulay and Richard C. Barum; Socialist Labor,
William W. Cox and August Gillhaus.

In all, 531 members of the electoral college will have to be chosen, and of these 286 will be required for election of a Presidential candidate. In the last election, President Wilson drew 277.

To Elect 34 Senators.
The present membership of the United States senate is 96, composed of 47 Democrats, 43 Republicans and one Republican and Progressive. This year 34 states are to elect 34 senators,
the terms of 32 members of that body
expiring on March 3, 1921, while the other two are being selected to fill unexpired terms up to March 4, 1925. Of the 32 senators whose terms expire
next March, 17 are Democrats and 15
Republicans. The two additional vacancies were caused by the deaths of Senators Bankhead of Alabama and Martin of Virginia, both Democrat.

One senator is to be chosen in each of the 33 states except in Alabama,
which elects 2.

The only states which do not elect senators are Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Women candidates for the senate
have been nominated in six states, by the Prohibitionists in Indiana, New York and Pennsylvania; by Socialists
in California; by the Farmer-Labor party in New York and Connecticut;
and by Independents in Nevada.

The total membership, 485, of the next house of representatives is to be elected. Of this number, 218 is necessary for a majority. The present membership is: Democrats, 159; Republicans, 282; Independent Republicans, 2; Independent, 1; Prohibition-ists, 1; vacancies, 3. Women have been nominated as candidates for representatives in at least 11 states, including Alabama, California, Idaho, Iowa,
Michigan, Nebraska, Massachusetts,
New York, Oklahoma, Oregon and Missouri.

Governors are to be elected in 34
states as follows: Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Rhode Island, South
Dakota, South Dakota, Tennessee,
Texas, Utah, Vermont, Washington,
West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Many Women Nominated.
Many women have been nominated for office on state tickets. Constitutional amendments are to be voted upon in 23 states. There will be referrals in 12 and initiatives in four.
Arkansas will vote on amendments granting suffrage to women and the powers of the initiative and referendum to the people. California will have a referendum on five questions,
including the Harris prohibition enforcement act and the sale of poison.

CAMPAIGN AT AN END

Rush of Voters Expected to Tax
Election Facilities to the Utmost

New York, Nov. 1.—New York
state's more than three million voters sat back tonight, the campaign
at an end, and confident predictions of rival political leaders before them, prepared to cast their ballots tomorrow for their choice
for President, governor and other state officers.

The polls will open at 6 o'clock
tomorrow morning and close at 6 o'clock at night. During the 12 hours of voting, political leaders
predict a veritable storm of ballots
in many districts throughout the state, where the increase in the number of eligible voters is expected to tax election facilities to the utmost.

In Greater New York, with 1,373,
565 registered voters in 2,737 election
districts, it would be necessary to vote
an average of 42 persons an hour in each district if the entire vote was cast. In some up-state districts, conditions are even more congested.
Counting of the vote probably will be delayed in many sections as a result.

"Democratic Weather" Predicted.
Democratic leaders predicted "Democratic weather," on the strength of the weatherman's forecast of unsettled conditions, with rain and cooler temperature. The Democrats declared their opponents' vote in the Republican stronghold of the rural districts will be considerably reduced by bad weather.

Republican leaders, however, are confident they will get out a record vote.

Today was marked by calm in the political camps. The candidates were at their homes, ready to vote early tomorrow, while their managers completed preparations for getting the voters to the polls. Governor Smith, Democratic candidate for re-election,
was at his home here. He expects to vote with Mrs. Smith at 12:30 o'clock.
His Republican opponent, Nathan L.
Miller, will vote in his home district
in Syracuse.

Other gubernatorial candidates, Joseph
D. Cannon, Socialist of New York;
Dudley Field Malone of New York,
Farmer-Labor party, and State Senator George F. Thompson of Niagara county, also plan to vote early and receive the returns at their homes.

Political Observers Believe Storm
Will Have Some Effect on Total Vote Cast

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Reports tonight
from several states of snow storms, political observers said would have some effect on the total vote cast in those sections. The heaviest fall was in Premont county, Wyoming, where 23 inches of snow covers the ground. In Nebraska and South Dakota, a heavy snow was reported in a number of counties, while Minnesota reported snow in some districts and rain in others. In parts of Nebraska and South Dakota, wire communication
was reported to have been interrupted.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The weather bureau issued the following storm
warning tonight:

"Heavy southwest storm warning to
p. m. Southern Lake Michigan, Southern Lake Huron, and Lake Erie. Disturbance center over Wisconsin and moving east-northeast, will be attended by strong south winds shifting to west and probably reaching Gale
force."

SAYS HE ARRESTED BERGDOLL
New York, Nov. 1.—The boast that he had caused the arrest near Coblenz
of Grover C. Bergdoll, the wealthy Philadelphia escaped draft evader,
was made here today by a passenger on the steamship Rotterdam, who gave his name as J. W. Harkman of Philadelphia.

Declaring that the American army authorities at Coblenz could confirm his statements, Harkman added "of course they wouldn't tell you anything about it yet."

CLOSE RACE FOR THE CUBAN PRESIDENCY

But General Gomez, Liberal Candidate, Is Conceded City of Havana by 7,000

(By The Associated Press.)
Havana, Cuba, Nov. 1.—The Cuban Presidential elections were held today
with comparative quiet, no serious
clashes being reported in any province
up to the time the polls closed.

Four persons were killed last night
and two today in minor affairs and some were wounded.

Returns from approximately 100
of the 3,000 precincts in Cuba, tabulated up to midnight, nine hours after the polls closed, show that General
Jose Miguel Gomez, Liberal, and Dr.
Alfredo Zayas, coalition candidate,
were running a close race for the presidency of the republic.

The followers of Gomez started a demonstration in Havana after the electoral board had temporarily closed
its office without any official returns having been received.

No official returns had reached the electoral board at 9:30 tonight.

Liberal headquarters, however,
claimed that Gomez, the Liberal nominee, had carried Havana province
by approximately 10,000 and was leading Zayas, coalition, in two of the other five provinces.

Charles Hernandez, secretary of the interior, to whom official returns also
are sent, announces that 257 precincts
outside of Havana gave Zayas a lead
of 3,558 votes.

Mr. Hernandez conceded Havana province, including the city, to Gomez.

Liberals claim that in the city of Havana alone the Gomez majority will exceed 7,000.

RENT LAWS HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL

New York Judge Says They Deprive Landlords of Reposses-
sion of Property

New York, Nov. 1.—The rent laws passed to safeguard the interests of tenants at the recent session of the New York state legislature were declared unconstitutional in a decision handed down late today by Supreme Court Justice Henry T. Hoehrichs.

Justice Hoehrichs, in rendering his decision, which was against Mortimer Osterweiss, a tenant, named defendant in ejection proceedings, said the law was unconstitutional because "it deprives landlords from all remedy
for re-possession of their property,"
and "it is discriminatory because as between owners of old and new buildings and those who seek to regain possession for other purposes, the act
denies the equal protection of the law."

The decision gives Osterweiss permission to answer the complaint, so that the suit may be brought to trial
in open court.

"It is of immense importance, that in view of the series of so-called housing laws recently passed and of which the above is one, the entire matter
should be passed upon by the court of last resort as soon as possible," the decision said.

ESPERANTO WINS CUP RACE

Clinches Trophy by Coming From Behind and Defeating Delawana
by Seven Minutes

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 1.—The Gloucester schooner, Esperanto, came from behind in a heart-grIPPING race today
and won from the Lunenburg schooner, Delawana, by seven minutes and 15 seconds, official time, thereby clinching the cup and $4,000 in prize money. The victory gave two straight wins to the United States in the international series between the Nova Scotia fishermen and their Massachusetts rivals and thereby determined the event for this year. The course was the same as Saturday—40 miles.

Keen judgment and matchless sailing ability of Captain "Marty" Welch
of the Gloucester boat was said by all hands tonight to be responsible for winning today's victory, when he brought the Esperanto from behind
after 22 miles of the 40-mile course
had been sailed, and on the final leg,
which was a dead beat to windward,
he continually increased his lead. The superior ability of the Esperanto to work to windward was admitted to be a factor in the result.

Captain Welch, however, said tonight that it was the wind that did it.

REPORTS OF OUTRAGES IN IRELAND CONTINUE

Dublin, Nov. 1.—Reports of shooting and reprisals over the week-end
continue to be received here from various parts of the country. District Inspector of Police Killegher was shot and killed last night at Granard. A Tullamore, a police sergeant was mortally wounded by an unknown man
and died. Two constables were shot and killed near Drogheda. A police patrol was attacked in Abbey Dorney,
a constable being killed and two others wounded. A constable was wounded at Causeway.

Armed civilians captured and destroyed the Lifford police barracks
yesterday, taking all arms and ammunition.

In Tralee, a naval driver was wounded, and reprisals followed, the city hall and a shop being burned.

PATIENT THROWS AWAY RADIUM WORTH $13,000

Utica, Nov. 1.—In an effort to cure a malignant of radium, valued at $13,000, carelessly dropped by a woman patient in the Faxon hospital here today, workmen began to dig up the scorchers in the vicinity of the hospital. The minister was the property of Dr. George M. Fisher of this city and was being used on the woman's breast, in the hope of curing cancer. Because it irritated her, the woman, who did not appreciate the value of the radium, went to a bathroom, took
the bandage off, and threw it away.

COX IS SURE OF VICTORY

Closes Campaign in Toledo With Plea That Country Support
the League

MEANS WORLD PEACE

Many Leave Hall When Cox Says
"Every Traitor in America Will Vote for Harding"

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Governor
Cox, the Democratic candidate, closed
his campaign here tonight as he began it three months ago, with a plea
that the election of tomorrow decide in favor of America's entrance into the League of Nations. He predicted his election was a certainty, declaring that his success would be a victory for
a cause not for a political party.

Two large audiences, numbering
several thousand, heard his speeches
and as he closed his last plea for the league, his words were that its acceptance by the United States would mean "Peace on earth, good will to men."

The Governor's visit to this city was
to keep faith with a political superstition, his party followers here asserting his only defeat at the polls was when he did not close his campaign here on election eve. Referring to his political career and local superstition, the Governor said:

"I finish the campaign here tonight, and I expect to win tomorrow."

Several Voters Leave Hall.
The Governor brought his campaign
to a close just an hour and a half before the beginning of election day. The song of the angels at Bethlehem, that he used as the closing words of his campaign, he said would be sung
again by the angels when this country
enters the league.

"Every traitor in America," the Governor asserted, "will vote tomorrow for Warren G. Harding."

This remark caused a few hearers
to leave the hall, with whom the crowd made merry as the departing voters moved toward the exits. The Governor also declared that when he started the campaign he promised to
"step a fast heat," and he added that he "finished with greater speed than ever."

BETTER POLITICAL STRUGGLE

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 1.—Approximately two million Ohio voters, nearly 700,000 of them estimated to be women, were waiting tonight to cast
their ballots tomorrow for president,
United States senator, and state officials
from governor down.

Probably never before in the state's history has there been a more determined or bitter political struggle. Much of the national campaign has centered
in Ohio, as both the Republican and Democratic candidates for president
are Ohio men.

The closing days of the campaign
have been fought with a bitterness probably never paralleled, occasioned
by the circulation of stories concerning the private lives of the presidential candidates. What effect these stories will have on the result of the election,
was the principal topic of Ohio voters
on the eve of the election.

Harding remains at home while Governor Cox was closing his campaign
with a speech at Toledo tonight. Senator Harding remained at his home in Marion, where he will celebrate his fifty-fifth birthday tomorrow.

The Republican candidate completed
his campaign with a speech here Saturday night.

Governor Cox will vote in Dayton tomorrow, while Senator Harding will vote in Marion. The Democratic candidate will receive election returns tomorrow night in the office of his newspaper, while Senator Harding will headquarters at his residence in Marion.

Both Democratic and Republican state organizations tonight held successful banquets to celebrate the fact that the presidential fight has enveloped all other considerable interest matters, however, in the race for United States senator between former Governor Frank M. Willis, the Republican candidate, and W. A. Julian, Democratic nominee, and for governor between Harry R. Davis, Republican, and State Democrat.

While various political groups
have conducted a more or less aggressive campaign, they have attracted little attention, being overshadowed by the main contest. Very little has apparently been heard from voters in the issue of the referendum
on the Cragie prohibition enforcement measure.

EX-HORSE CAR CONDUCTOR CAPTURES NOBLE AWARD

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Knut Hammen, Norwegian author and formerly a conductor on the old Haisted street
horse car line here, back in the early eighties, has won the 1920 Noble prize
for literature. Friends learned today that Hammen came here from North Dakota, where he had worked on a farm
and after being discharged from the farm came here because he read about the prize in a newspaper and wanted to win it. He returned to Norway to live with his first wife.

URGENT CREDIT FOR FARMERS

Washington, Nov. 1.—Extension of immediate credit relief to farmers by rescuing a lien, pending the ratification of a loan, was asked of President Wilson today by George F.
Hampton, of the Farmers' National council.

Secretary Tamm is understood to have promised to present the request
to the President at once.

GAY OLD MEN

"SAM JAGWAY was trying to be funny, this morning," related the horse doctor. "He saw some boys turning handspins, and undertook to show them how the trick used to be done in the halcyon days, and the doctor says he wrenched his back so he'll be in bed for several days."

"Disasters of that sort usually happen to the graybeard who tries to demonstrate that he isn't any older than he was forty years ago," commented the village parson. "I'm always being tempted to do some idiotic thing, and have to suppress such impulses with a mailed fist. It's all the outcome of vanity. A man hates to admit that he's a back number. He wants to assure the plain people that, notwithstanding his gray whiskers and string-haired legs, he's a four-horse team with a dog under the wagon, when it comes to athletic skill."

"I was in the livery barn the other evening, when young Fretzinger began explaining that he had been taking boxing lessons from one of the old masters. He had learned all the tricks of the game, and was just suffering agonies because there was nobody present who would stand up and exchange scientific swats with him."

"In my younger days, if I do say it myself, I was a star performer in the ordinary knock-down-and-drag-out form of combat, but I never was worth shucks at boxing. Nobody knows that better than I do. Why, then, did I inform Fretzinger that I would be glad to spar a few rounds with him? It surely was vanity and nothing else. I had an idea that, while he might have plenty of the fancy stuff on hand, I might land one of my old-time haymakers; in which case I felt sure the town would soon be ringing with the story of an old man's prowess."

"So I took off my long jimsoner coat, and my vest, and stood up for battle. If anybody tells you, my friends, that Fretzinger doesn't know how to wield his hands, you may regard the story as a roorback. I never saw fists so numerous as on that occasion. I couldn't see anything else for a while, and they landed on me in many unexpected places, and I don't remember a time when I was so embarrassed."

"Fretzinger explained—afterward that he merely tapped me gently because I was a venerable man, old enough to be his grandfather. In that case I never want to become involved in an argument with him when he is in earnest. I had a black eye for a week after this recital, and my nose has never satisfied me since. Every time I came downtown, I had to explain to a thousand people that I blackened my eye while spitting kindling, or that I dropped a sad-lion on it. There is nothing more humiliating than a black eye, and I made up my mind that I'd try to realize my advanced age thereafter, and behave myself like a grave and reverend man."

"But no sooner had my eye recovered than I was in trouble again. I saw some young men wrestling, and paused to point out that they didn't know the rudiments of the game. I assured them that in my younger days I was a holy terror, and I didn't think that my hand had lost its cunning. It would afford me genuine happiness, I said, to show them how wrestling was done in the palmy days of Muldoon and Whistler."

"So I removed my coat and vest and went into executive session with a husky young man who had no respect for gray hairs. I am not sure about what followed, but I think he must have thrown me over his head. Anyhow, I made a great dent in the earth with my person, and I was so sore for two weeks that I had to take myself around in a wheelbarrow. Of course, I am determined to make no more bad breaks of the kind, but I haven't much confidence in myself, and tomorrow you may see me climbing a tree half a mile high, to show some boys how to rob birds' nests."

Dog Tried to Be a Hero.

Madison, Ind.—It wasn't the dog's fault that Carl Leroy Knobel, aged five, was drowned in the Ohio river. The boy fell from a horseback, the home of his parents. His mother, Mrs. Carl Knobel, waded into the water until it was beyond her depth, but to no avail. The dog swam out into the stream and the boy caught hold of him, but the strong current pulled both under the water. The dog came up again, but the boy didn't.

Found Old Coin.

Harrisburg, Pa.—George Brunell, while being in his tobacco patch in back of the residence of Mr. Carl Coleman on College street, found a very old coin. It is of copper, about the size of a quarter. On one side is the harp of Erin with a crown of England above it and "Hibernia 1793." On the other side is the head of George III, of England and "Georgius III. Rex" around the edge. The date of the coin makes it 121 years old.

Goat Brings $750.

St. Louis City, Mo.—What is believed to be the world's record price for a six-month-old goat has been received by Dehesa & Co. of St. Louis City, for a Sannen buck, bought by L. L. Dehesa at Los Angeles for $750.

STOCK EXCHANGE BUSINESS IRREGULAR

Events Over Week-End Present No Change from Recent Conflicting Conditions

New York, Nov. 1.—Business on the stock exchange today was irregular of movement and contracted in scope, as was to be expected in view of the holiday in London and tomorrow's suspension of operations in all markets of this country.

Events over the week-end presented no change from the recent conflicting conditions. The stronger returns of the local federal reserve and clearing banks were offset by advices emphasizing further reactionary tendencies in trade and commerce.

The money market manifested no perceptible change. Bulls of the better class, notably Southern Pacific, at a net gain of three and one-fourth points, also oils and coppers, featured the firmer side of the market, while shippings, textiles, rubbers and paper specialties yielded to pressure resulting from unsettled markets for those industries.

Crucible steel and United Fruit were heavy most of the session but both rallied in the later dealings, declaration of a stock dividend of 100 per cent for fruit causing short covering throughout the general list.

In the bond market, price tendencies were upward, all the Liberty issues, with one exception, strengthening. Tractions and other utilities also improved with standard rails and some of the industrials, but international bonds were steady.

The Record in Oneonta Is a Unique One

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ills and is looking for an effective kidney medicine, better depend on the remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills have given satisfaction in such cases. Oneonta citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

James M. Dibble, freight conductor, Oneonta, says: "A spell of sickness left my kidneys in a weakened condition. I gave Doan's Kidney Pills a thorough trial and they made my kidneys strong and healthy again. I use Doan's when my kidneys get congested or when I take cold, and they always give me the desired relief."

The above statement was given September 22, 1914, and on August 2, 1918, Mr. Dibble added: "I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly now as I did several years ago."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dibble had. Foster-McBride Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

AUTUMN WEDDING AT LENA.

Miss Ebel Harrington and M. A. Chase United in Pretty Ceremony.

Lena, Nov. 1.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Harrington in this village was the scene of a pretty wedding last Thursday, when their daughter, Miss Ebel Harrington, became the bride of Maurice Augustus Chase of Chase. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. A. Dillon, of the Episcopal church at Hartwick. The Episcopal ring service being used.

The bridal party entered the parlor, led by the flower girl and ring bearer, Harriet Gardner of Oneonta, and to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Elmer Sargent. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her maid of honor was Miss Irene Chase, the groom's sister, who was also beautifully gowned, while the best man was Raymond Chase, brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, an elaborate wedding dinner was served to the 87 guests in attendance, with Mrs. Homer Potter of West Oneonta acting as cateress. The Harrington home was attractively decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves, evergreen and white and green ribbon, all artistically arranged to make the setting one of great beauty. The same color scheme prevailed at the bridal table.

Later in the afternoon, the happy couple left on a three weeks' wedding trip, which will include Herkimer, Barre, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, returning from which they will make their home on a farm the groom recently purchased at Chase. Both are highly respected young people of this township and all will join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life. The general esteem in which they are held by their friends was evidenced by the beautiful display of gifts, which included silver, cut glass, linen, porcelain and money.

Among the guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chase and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chase of Chase; Paul Chase of Cooperstown; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Chase, Mrs. Lottie Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. David Maples and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. George Morehouse, Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons and daughter, all of Oneonta; Lynn Chase of Schenectady; Mrs. Ruth Eldred and daughter, Mrs. Helen Jenkins, Mrs. Helen Potter and two daughters and Mrs. Elizabeth Gardner and daughter, of West Oneonta; Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Fuller of Mt. Vision; Mrs. Myrtle Brownell, Mrs. Curry Bradley, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mack of Hartwick; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wayman of Hyde Park; Miss Mary Oleson of Utica; Mrs. Emogene Gregory and son, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Gregory and son, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Yager and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hickling of Welcome.

SCHOOL TOGS FOR CHILDREN

Wash Clothes Have Preference Where Laundry Question Can Be Easily Solved.

The experienced mother knows that she cannot send her child to school in exactly the same clothes that have been worn all summer. School days are too hard on the one hand on the fine muslins and organzies and such, and require on the other hand something a little more dress-up than the rompers, overalls and play smocks worn during the hot vacation months. Of course, the first few weeks the weather is still warm enough for summer clothes, so that a few new cotton frocks can be added immediately to the school wardrobe and new fall things started by the home sewer.

Where the laundry question does not present an insuperable problem, the well-dressed child wears wash clothes to school all the year round. There are being sponsored, however, for all school wear some new kinds of wash frocks which lessen laundry work but at the same time keep the school frock fresh and clean, something very hard to accomplish with the dark serge and plaids. First of all, there is saten. This can be had in dark chintz and chamois patterns and washes beautifully. Besides, it is warmer than other cottons. Even in the plain dark shades, when of a fine quality, it makes charming little frocks in pinafore style to be worn over separate wash gowns of dimity, lawn or pongee. These gowns can often be made from worn-out frocks, which gives this style of pinafore frock a very practical aspect. A little wool embroidery, a bright blanket-stitch around the edge, some applique flowers from other colors of saten and the little dark school frock of navy, black, brown or dark green becomes quite gay.

MONGREL SAVES SIX

Dog Awakens Family When House Catches Fire.

Nellie, a mongrel dog, saved the lives of six persons in a fire and then burned to death. The dog awakened Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Koval and their four children by frantic barking when their house in Philadelphia was in flames.

A fire of unknown origin started in the first floor of the store shortly after two o'clock. Nellie gave the alarm and succeeded in arousing the family. Then the dog ran down the stairway through the blaze. Losing track of the family, she dashed through the fire once more.

Meanwhile the Koval family had been rescued from their perilous position. Firemen battled their way to a bedroom, where they discovered Nellie dead, she having succumbed to flames and smoke.

NEWLYWEDS BEAT WAY

Short of Funds, They Take to Rods to Get Home.

Attired in a man's shirt and overalls, Mrs. Martha Rendulch, sixteen, of Kansas City, Kan., was picked up by police in the railroad yards near Gibson, Neb. Mrs. Rendulch was accompanied by her husband, Anthony, twenty-two, who told the officers that he and his wife were "beating their way" to their home at Kansas City, because they were short of funds. He said that he had married the girl four months ago and had been employed since at a ranch at Alliance, Neb. Unable to save any money because it had taken all he could make on the ranch to support his wife, who lived in town, the two had decided to return to Kansas City.

Wheat Export Is Normal.

Chicago.—The wheat export this year will be 230,000,000 bushels, or the same shipment as that of last year, according to F. S. Goodman, Chicago grain statistician. Europe's wheat need this year is estimated at 600,000,000 bushels, and of this, United States and Canada can fill 200,000,000 bushels. When all the fields are measured, it is predicted that a world shortage of approximately 180,000,000 will exist.

First Negroes in America.

The first appearance of the negro in the English colonies in America was in 1619, when a cargo of negro slaves were landed at Jamestown. In 1790, when the first census was taken, there were 767,295 negroes in the United States.

Sugar From Palm Sap.

In the East Indies a sugar known as jagery is made from the sap of the coconut palm. The sap is obtained by cutting the flower spathe and the juice yields about 15 per cent of sugar. It is consumed locally and is very pure. Chemically, much of it is identical with cane and beet sugar.

Enjoyable Halloween Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bender gave a Halloween party last Saturday night at their home, 408 Chestnut street, in honor Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coy, who departed yesterday morning by auto for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will remain for six months. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with orange and black Halloween favors. The guests arrived gaily bedecked in costumes of all shapes and descriptions, the first prize going to Mrs. Metress Crandall for the most ancient costume. The evening was pleasantly passed in a social way and with an excellent musical program rendered by Kenneth Brooks, Marion Brooks and Harlow Bender. Late in the evening, delicious "Halloween refreshments" were served and the merry party broke up, after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Coy a safe journey.

With the Hunters.

Fred Rhodes of 3 Harvey street and William Burdick, Walter Phillips and Glen Quick, all of Davenport Center, leave this morning in Mr. Quick's automobile for the Catskill mountains, where they will endeavor to bag some game.

L. G. Weisshardt and Frank Munroe of this city leave this week for Big Moose and McKeever, in the Adirondacks, where they will spend several days on a hunting expedition into the big woods.

D. B. Howard, M. F. Howard, M. H. Howard and Claude Ayers of this city, and C. A. Howard of Binghamton have returned from a several days' stay at Indian Lake, in the Adirondacks. Although they went on a "hunting trip," they were unsuccessful in bringing down any big game, although they sighted some deer. They were successful, however, in running across some good fishing, they returning with several great northern pike, a few of which weighed 9½ pounds apiece.

Local News Notes.

CORN PEST FOUND IN CANADA

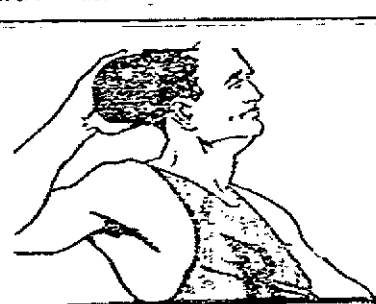

Department of Agriculture Takes Prompt Action to Keep Insect Out of Michigan.

Washington.—Discovery of the European corn borer in the vicinity of St. Thomas, Canada, has caused the department to send a staff of entomologists to Michigan to confer with local agricultural authorities to forestall possible infection of the corn crop in that state.

Experts of the bureau of entomology, the department announced, are concerned over the appearance of the corn pest in Canada, as certain sections of New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Pennsylvania already have been quarantined to keep the pest from making its way to the corn belt.

Women of Middle Age

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change in her life without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, smothering spells, fainting spells, nervous troubles and irregularities are symptoms that should have prompt attention. These two letters prove what a successful remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is for women at this time of life.

These Two Women Helped During Change of Life.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months, had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female trouble. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during the Change of Life I used the same remedy. I am seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends, having the same troubles as I had. Your remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for it."—Mrs. SUSAN C. END OF THE CAMPAIGN

With the stroke of six this evening a political campaign which had begun about five months ago in the cities of Chicago and San Francisco, will have come to an end. Then there will remain only the ballots to be counted and before midnight, allowing for all difference of time, it is probable that throughout the country the result of the election will be known. Thereafter, the country will settle down for at least three years and a half, if not of general satisfaction, at least of certainty as to the conduct of affairs.

So far as the campaign just ending is concerned, it may be noted that, when the importance of the issues involved is considered, it has been one devoted to a great extent of incident. There have not been mass meetings of such a nature as in other years have distinguished presidential campaigns; there have been no miles-long processions of marching men with torches and banners; there have not been limited numbers of what might be denominated great campaign speeches. In fact the campaign has been to buy the slightest extent an appeal to the emotions, and to a large degree intellectual. The appeal has not been to party or personal sentiment; it has rather been to the understanding, and largely on a single issue—that of the League of Nations, and what the attitude of the United States in the matter should be.

Regarding this, the people no doubt long ago made up their minds. Neither party, passion nor prejudice have greatly influenced them, but rather they have been moved by what after careful deliberation, and reading of the arguments on both sides—and everybody reads both sides nowadays, seems to them to be the logical and the best thing for the United States to do. They go, therefore, to the polls today with minds made up. They will vote as they think and to a large extent, it is believed, as they pray. And the decision of majority will be accepted, since there is nothing else to do in a free country. The officers derive their powers from the consent of the governed. Not to accept the result and stand by the officers-elect would be a step toward such anarchy as Mexico gives us year by year a lesson of.

AT SALVATION ARMY.

Brigadier Escott, New District Commander, to Visit Oneonta Post.

Captain William Harrison, of the local Salvation Army, announces that special meetings will be held at the Army hall on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week, when Brigadier William Escott, with his staff, will be in Oneonta to make an inspection of the work being carried on by the local organization. Brigadier Escott recently succeeded Major William Anderson as commander of the Eastern New York posts of the Salvation Army and is making a tour of the district in order to get first-hand information as to the needs of the territory he will supervise and the progress of the Salvation Army work generally.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meetings on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, commencing at 8 o'clock. In addition to talks by Brigadier Escott and his assistants, Captain Boyes, a musical program will be carried out under the direction of Captain Harrison, and an interesting time is expected.

The local Salvation Army has commenced holding Sunday morning services in addition to its other services and there have been good attendances so far. The service opens at 11 o'clock every Sunday morning.

The Weather for October.

During the month of October the total rainfall in Oneonta was 1.64 inches, of which one inch fell on the 24th. The maximum temperature was 82 degrees on the 14th, and the minimum was 40 degrees on the 15th. The mean for the month was 57.9 degrees. There were only two or three slight frosts, and to this time there has not been frost enough to injure vegetation to any considerable extent. As the mean autumn temperature for the month is about 58 degrees, the records for 1920 indicate a departure of five and a half degrees from normal, the difference being fortunately on the right, or warm, side. One result of the warm month has been a greatly reduced consumption of coal, somewhat at one of the highest prices of fuel, generally, anywhere.

Otsego Man Was Presidential Elector.

Today's election results show that that at the Presidential election of 1894 the late H. J. Dwyer, a native of Otsego county, was a Republican Presidential elector for the congressional district that comprised the counties of Delaware, Ulster and Chenango, and that he cast his ballot as such for Abraham Lincoln.

Aid Society Meeting at Emerson.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Emerson Methodist Episcopal Church will be held Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 3, at the home of Miss Van Osterhout. All will be welcome.

PRINTING THE BALLOTS

Some Figures of Interest Regarding the Tickets and Supplies to Be Used Today—99 Absentees Vote and There Are 245 Inspectors and Clerks.

Otsego county has 73 election districts, of which 12 are in the city of Oneonta. All of these use the paper ballots, except the three districts in the town of Richfield.

To supply these, it is necessary to print 95,845 ballots, being the largest number of ballots ever printed for this county.

These ballots, if placed end to end, would reach a total distance of 24.7 miles, which would be as far as from Oneonta to Morris and back for a considerable distance this side of West Oneonta; or in a straight line they would reach from Oneonta to Cooperstown Junction. Spread out upon the ground, they would cover a field five acres in extent. To print them required over 191,000 impressions on a printing press, and in the complete work 435 changes were necessary for regular and sample ballots.

In addition to the ballots, it will require 450 statements of results, 292 tally sheets, 428 mounted sample ballots, 482 inspectors' oaths, 155 distance markers, 300 large envelopes, 146 instruction cards, in addition to the above supplies are those sent out for registration consisting of 292 registers, 146 challenge affidavits books, 146 books of identification statements, 35,000 index cards, 316 envelopes for cards, 24 registration place cards, 73 owners cards, 146 seals, 433 registration report cards, 73 blank lists for voters, 35,000 notices of amendments, 428 copies of the election law, in addition to ink, pens, pencils and other stationery.

All of these are gathered together by the board of elections, wrapped in bundles for the respective districts and delivered to the town clerks and city clerk of Oneonta, who in turn deliver them to the various districts.

To register, poll and count the vote will require the services of 212 inspectors and 146 general clerks, who will work a total of 1,045 days, or if one man was to work as many days, it would take him nearly three years, working Sundays and holidays.

Out of the 108 absentee ballots mailed, 99 were returned voted, one returned unvoted for the reason that the voter would be out of the United States on election day and eight either not received or received too late to be accepted.

Nurses Must Re-Register.

Registered nurses in this city will be affected by the amendment to the nurse practice act, which became a law on May 12 of this year, requiring that each nurse registered in this state at the time of the passage of the act, make application to the secretary of the board of nurse examiners in Albany for a re-registration blank. Upon receipt of the blank, she must immediately make application for registration by forwarding to the secretary of the board the blank properly filled in and accompanied by the fee of one dollar on or before Dec. 1, 1920.

Nurses holding a diploma showing graduation from a course of at least two years in a training school for nurses connected with a hospital or sanitarium, approved and registered by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, may make application for such re-registration to the state board of nurse examiners in Albany.

Celebrates Twenty-seventh Birthday.

Saturday evening about 35 of the employees of the superintendent's office of the D. & H. and their wives and friends gathered at the home of Philip Maples. The occasion was Mr. Maples' twenty-seventh birthday. He was given a number of presents, among which was a smoking set from the employees of the office. The evening was passed with games and music, after which light refreshments were served, which closed an enjoyable evening for all who attended.

Celebrate Birthday and Anniversary.

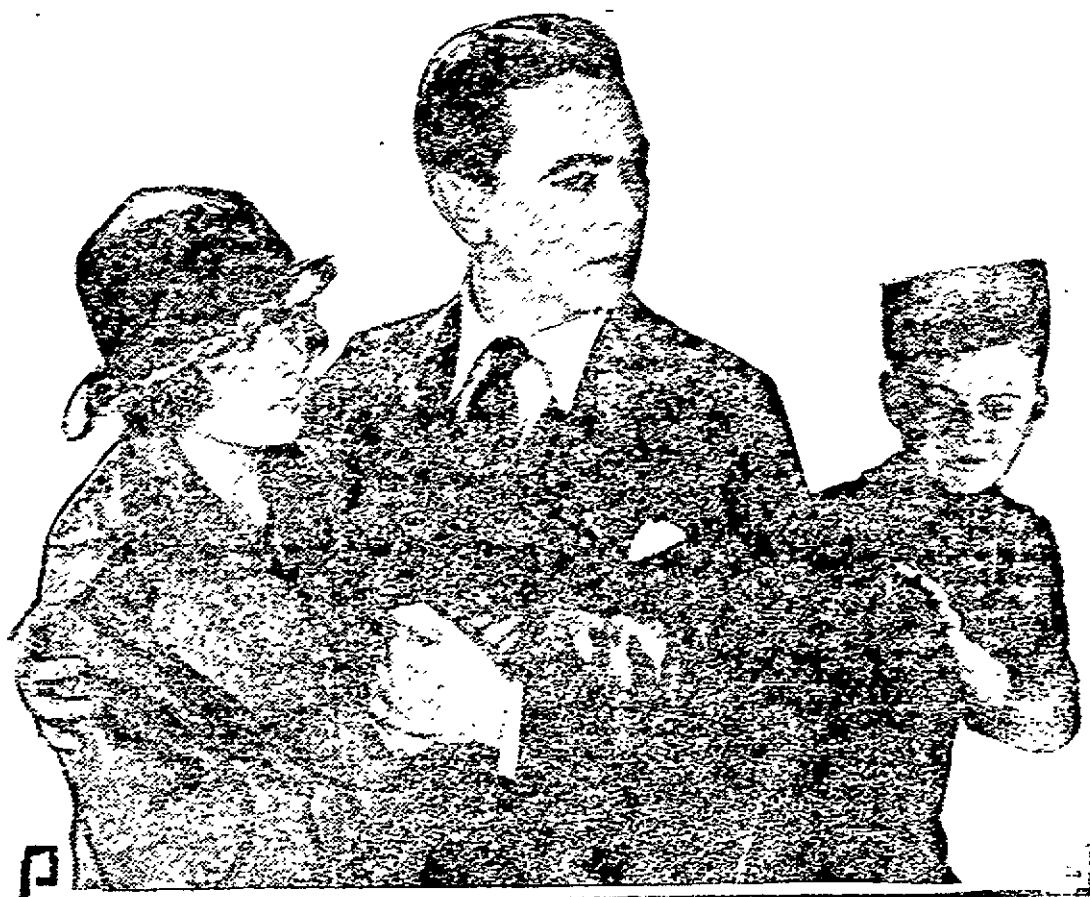

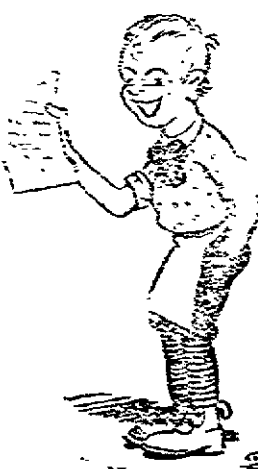

Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson of 57 West street celebrated the fifty-sixth birthday of Mr. Pearson and the sixth anniversary last Saturday. There were about 25 guests at their home who enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner, which was served at noon and a supper in the late afternoon. Those from out of the city who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Lavell Lent and son, Grant, of Morris.

HIGH SCHOOL AND PRESIDENCY

Election Gives Big Majority for Harding—Four Excellent Political Speeches.

Yesterday afternoon at the Oneonta High school was election day for the students and the vote, when canvassed, showed the popularity of Harding, who received a majority of 100 votes. The afternoon, which was full of enthusiasm and plenty of excitement, was opened with the national hymn, "America," sung by the High School body. Following a scripture reading by Principal VanDeusen, there were speeches given by the following: Florence Carless for the Socialists, Harlow Bender for the Republicans, Marjorie Fahey for the Prohibitionists and Dorothy VanDeusen for the Democratic party.

Miss Carless, who spoke on the Socialists, delivered an excellent address touching on the personality of that party and of its strength among the farmers in Wisconsin and Oklahoma. She also stated that the Socialists had doubled their vote this year in comparison to previous years.

Harlow Bender, Republican representative, opened his address with the remark that "If you wish to make the United States free from Democracy, select Senator Harding." This remark caused considerable applause in the auditorium. He stated that the Republican party would probably accept the League of Nations, but with some reservations.

Marjorie Fahey delivered a very interesting address to the High School students in behalf of the Prohibitionists, touching on their economic standing and their aid to the farmers of the country.

Dorothy VanDeusen, representing the Democratic party, delivered one of the most eloquent and forceful addresses of the day. She urged voters to "use their common sense," and vote for Cox, who, she believed, would work with the senate but would not be coerced by it.

Following this address, Democratic students, with Albert Farnes as leader, gave hearty cheers for Cox, and these were followed by the other party groups in cheers for their respective candidates.

Following the speeches in the auditorium, the students passed to their rooms and the election took place. At the close of the afternoon, another gathering was held in the auditorium, where Mr. VanDeusen gave the results of the election, which were as follows: Harding, 222; Cox, 152; Debs, 22; and Watkins, 2.

The election was very interesting and instructive, and the students showed a good deal of the fundamental principles of the method of voting. The rooms of the school were arranged in the usual form of election polls, and only one student was allowed to vote at a time.

Mr. Rathbone Improving.

The condition of Merritt Rathbone, who was injured Sunday in a collision of his auto with a milk train at Grand George, and who was subsequently brought to the Fox Memorial hospital, was reported as more favorable last evening. His last to some extent recovered consciousness, and the prospects for his recovery are thought to be good. Mrs. Rathbone, whose injuries were less serious, returned home yesterday.

King's Herald's Elect Officers.

A meeting of the King's Herald of the Methodist Episcopal church was held yesterday afternoon, at which 20 members were present. Election of officers was held, with the following results: President, Florence Proper, vice president, Betty Johns, secretary, Virginia Cantello, treasurer, Frances Bluest, master of ceremonies, Raymond Bluest, organist, Audrey Reynolds.

Lawrence Man Under Knife.

Lawrence Strong of Lawrence underwent an operation at the Fox Memorial hospital yesterday for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. The operation, which was performed by Dr. McMenamin, was successful, and Mr. Strong is doing nicely.

BAD BOYS AND BAD MEN.

Make Up Large Part of Police Activity During Past Month.

Bad boys and bad men who drank liquor made up the bulk of the city police department's activities during the month of October, according to figures compiled recently. Seventeen youths, ranging in age from 12 to 13, were brought before Judge Huntington during the final week of the month, charged with malicious destruction of property, but all were given their freedom after promising to reform, and several were placed under parole. As for public intoxication, 14 men were brought into court for this offense; six of them were fined $10 apiece, two $5 each, two were given suspended sentences, and one was ordered to get out of town.

Third degree assault was the charge preferred against four men during the month; two of these were given suspended sentences, one man was fined $10, and the trial of another is still pending. A man charged with skipping his board bill paid a $5 fine, another man, who discharged firearms within the city limits, was dealt with similarly, and a man charged with vagrancy was ordered out of town. Only four traffic violators were brought before the judge during the month, and three were given suspended sentences, while the fourth was fined $5.

In the class of more serious offenders were two men charged with being common gamblers. They were held for the action of the grand jury, as was also a man charged with arson. Three men were arrested by the local police for other cities, one of them for stealing a car in Delaware county.

Routine activities of patrolmen during the month included the locking of doors of eight business places found open, and the restoration of two lost keys to their homes. During the month 23 motor car accidents, some of a serious nature, were reported at police headquarters. The police were requested in two instances by out-of-town authorities to be on the look-out for stolen cars.

"ALWAYS YOU" FRIDAY NIGHT

Hammerstein's Musical Comedy at Oneonta Theatre Nov. 5

Burton Green, who is the other half of Franklin and Green, who appear in "Always You" at the Oneonta theatre, Friday night, Nov. 5, was with Miss Franklin, a member of the first unit of the Overthrust Theatre League to entertain our boys in France, in fact, Mr. Green and Miss Franklin were the headliners of the Irene Franklin Y. M. C. A. Unit. Mr. Green says relative to their memorable trip, "We gave in 11 100 performances in England, 181 in France, 100, and three on the ship that brought us back. Of the latter, one was given for the officers, which was also attended by Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, and Assistant Secretary of War John R. Hunt. Another was for the 16 stretcher cases, and the third for 250 other wounded soldiers on their way home and an equal number of the ship's crew. "We had about every possible experience playing in all kinds of structures, huts, tents, dugouts, cars and trucks and frequently right out in the open. In towns that were bombarded while we were playing and we saw one show within three-quarters of a mile of the German trenches."

Full and Running Over

Our stock rooms are full of Genuine Ford Parts. We have an assortment of parts ($60,000 worth) that would enable us to build either a Ford passenger car or a Ford One Ton Truck from the ground up. Then, too, those parts are Ford-made—each according to its use—so that they are exact duplicates of the original parts now in your car, and will give the same constant, hard wear.

Our shops are equipped with up-to-the-minute tools and machinery, specially designed, so that we can properly and promptly take care of your repair work—from a minor adjustment to a complete overhaul. And the mechanics who will do the work for you are men who understand the Ford mechanism and who know the Ford way to do the work.

We are Authorized Ford Dealers; we not only give Ford service, but we sell Ford cars and Ford One Ton Trucks as well. So, it is easy to understand that we have more than a passing interest in your car.

Come to authorized Ford headquarters and be on the safe side of dependable repairs.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Election smoker at the Oneonta club tonight.

—A direct wire will provide election returns at the Elks' club tonight. Good cider and doughnuts will be served.

—Lunch will be served to members at the Knights of Columbus club rooms this evening and election returns received.

—The polls open for election at 5 a. m. today and close at 6 o'clock this evening. The place where every Oneonta voter registered is the place where he, or she, will vote.

—Housewives and others interested in the public market will note that it will be held on Wednesday instead of today, on account of the general election. The hours and the place are the same as heretofore.

—The Oneonta postoffice will remain open all day today, and city and rural deliveries will be made as usual. The public library will also be open. The banks and Normal and Public schools of the city, however, will be closed throughout the day.

New Interest Department Opens.

The patrons of the Wilber National bank will hereafter find additional facilities for the handling of their business. New equipment has been recently installed for taking care of the increased business, particularly in the interest department, which is now at the right as one enters the bank and entirely separated from the commercial department, which will be appreciated by patrons of both classes of business. Two additional tellers have been appointed, Harvey C. Sackett in the commercial department, and Miss E. E. Smith, assistant teller in the interest department. The officers of the bank are receiving many compliments upon the attractive new equipment which has just been installed.

Elm Street Not a Speedway.

Chief of Police Horton announced yesterday that so many complaints had been received relative to motorists using the new Elm street road as a speedway that hereafter that thoroughfare will come under the special attention of the police department and any autoist found violating the city ordinance relative to speeding will be arrested. There are also reports of numerous infractions of the speed law on Maple street, some motorists seeming to enjoy seeing to what extent they can "hit 'er up" while preparing to "take" the hill. Delivery trucks of several local firms appear to be the most persistent offenders.

Meetings Today.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will be held in the church parlors this afternoon. The subject will be "Freedmen." Miss Jennie Kelso will be the leader. Hostesses will be Mrs. D. H. Mills and Mrs. R. B. Colburn. All are cordially invited.

The Daughters of Isabella will hold a meeting at 8 o'clock this evening in their club room.

Stated meeting of Martha chapter, No. 116, O. E. S., this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work, Star degree.

Auto Crash at Glen Bridge.

Mrs. Melissa Germond, proprietor of the Wannan sanitarium at 15 Lawn avenue, suffered a sprained ankle Sunday afternoon, when her Scripps-Booth car came into collision with a Hupmobile driven by Mrs. O. C. Kelly of Otego. Oneonta Plains, as a result of some misunderstanding as to which car was going to take the bridge first, the structure being too narrow for two cars.

Fortnightly Club Wednesday.

The first meeting of the Fortnightly club for the season of 1920-21 will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) evening at the home of Charles H. Baker on South Side. The speaker will be Dr. Charles A. Schumacher, whose subject will be "The Mission of America." The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

Woman's Club.

STAR'S ELECTION RETURNS

WILL BE BULLETINED PROMPTLY ON SCREEN OPPOSITE STAR OFFICE.

With a Continuous Wire Service from 7 o'clock Until Morning Latest Information Will Be Available for Oneontans.

The Star will receive a continuous wire service tonight commencing at 7 o'clock, giving the latest election returns from the state and nation supplementing the returns from the city and county gathered by the papers own reporters and election correspondents. These returns will be bulletined promptly with the aid of a stereopticon on canvas opposite this office for the information of the public.

All the information in the possession of the Associated Press, the greatest news gathering force in the world, will thus be made available for residents of Oneonta and vicinity and all interested are invited to gather to witness the display. The news should be the latest and best available in the city.

It should be borne in mind that the polls do not close until 6 o'clock and as all the election boards will doubtless complete the canvass of the presidential ballot before proceeding with the count of the state and county ballot it will doubtless be late before any returns other than on the presidential contest will be available.

The Star of Wednesday morning will contain all the returns available up to 4 a. m. but as some of the election boards of the city are predicting that it will be 7 o'clock or later before they can complete the count, it is quite probable that the city and county returns will not be tabulated until a late hour. However the result in the nation and in the state should be known long before the hour of going to press.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

Local Lodge to Observe Anniversary of Washington Becoming a Mason.

Oneonta lodge, 456, F. and A. M., will celebrate the Masonic birthday of George Washington with a program at Masonic temple on Thursday evening of this week. Masons throughout the country will celebrate this date, November 4, 1752, being the date on which Washington became a Mason, taking the degree of entered apprentice in Fredericksburg lodge, Fredericksburg, Va. The movement to establish November 4 as a national annual Masonic memorial day in commemoration of the date on which the first President of the United States joined the Masonic fraternity, was launched in Fredericksburg and has met the approval of all American Masonic lodges.

Although details of the program Thursday evening have not yet been arranged fully, there will be exercises appropriate to the occasion, which is an interesting one in Masonic circles. All Masons and their wives, and members of the O. E. S., are cordially invited to attend the event.

At the Parshall Hospital.

Miss Mercy Myers, who for the past two weeks had been a patient at the Parshall hospital, suffering from strangulated hernia, is fully recovered and yesterday was able to return home.

Carolyn Woodard, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Woodard of Unadilla, returned home Sunday. He had been a patient at the hospital for the past two weeks, following an operation for appendicitis, from which he has entirely recovered.

Bad Politics and Business.

Don't be discouraged, for the time is coming when inaugural balls and governor's stunts with tin colonels, "Your Excellency" and pow-wows, will give way to ability to superintend a big ranch or the building of a big bridge and how to make good in promoting the prosperity of the people, and not to pose. Government is just a big honest business proposition, which gives little fellows a fair chance and a square deal, just as I am giving in my big safe business here in Oneonta, where I have safely made small amounts of little fellows roll up to several million dollars, for homes and farms and have made rent money pay for them. Yes, we're gaining and if you'll watch me, you'll see me help to bring politics to my life and let live game. I am the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association.

THE MAIN STREET PROBLEM

Board of Public Works Discusses Widening Thoroughfare, But Takes No Action.

The problem of relieving traffic congestion on Main street by widening the roadway was discussed at a meeting of the Board of Public Works held last evening at the Municipal building. For years past, citizens have realized that the street is much too narrow for a business thoroughfare, and now that motor traffic has greatly increased, the problem has become a serious one. The matter was talked over at considerable length at the meeting, but no action was taken. It is, of course, too late this season to make any changes, but undoubtedly next year will see some definite steps taken to bring about the needed improvement. The one regret is that Main street originally was not made as wide as Market street, for example.

Another matter which was discussed but not acted upon, was the question of accepting Wall street as a city thoroughfare. Although at present this much-used street is owned privately, there is little probability of it ever being closed to the public, as many business places use it almost exclusively for delivery-truck traffic. The city hopes eventually to take it over, however, and make it a public street.

Superintendent Dull gave a report at the meeting of the new sidewalks that have been laid during the past season, and taken all in all, the report was very satisfactory, showing that, despite unfavorable labor conditions, many new walks had been put in place at needed spots.

Bills were audited and routine matters discussed, but nothing additional of public interest took place at the meeting of the board.

Much Halloween Fun in Evidence.

There was a general Halloween jollification last night on Main street, a large number of youngsters roaming through the business section and entertaining all who would listen to them—and most everybody had to because of the racket. The fun was mostly of a non-malicious type, however, and the young folks had a great deal of merriment, as did also the lookers-on.

Mr. Chambers' Condition Favorable.

The many friends of P. R. Chambers, who underwent an operation Sunday afternoon at the Parshall hospital, will be pleased to know that he rallied satisfactorily from the shock of the operation and that his condition last evening was very favorable.

S. S. CONVENTION NEXT WEEK

Otego-Delaware Association to Meet in Local First Baptist Church November 9—Outline of Program.

The annual convention of the Otego and Delaware Sunday School association will take place in the local First Baptist church on Tuesday, November 9, with a program of addresses on Sunday school work by prominent church people in the counties named. It is expected that every school in the district will be represented at the meeting, thus assuring a large attendance. All the sessions of the convention will be held in the First Baptist church.

The Sunday school workers will gather for registration at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and continue in session until noon. The keynote message will be delivered by Rev. Dr. E. J. Farley, following which the seven county superintendents in the district will report on the progress of the work. A general discussion will follow these reports and committees will be appointed.

The afternoon session will open at 1:30 with a praise service led by John D. Hulson, following which there will be simultaneous business sessions of the Delaware and Otego county organizations. Addresses of the afternoon include: "The Teacher's Chest of Tools," by Rev. E. W. Dix of Cooperstown; "Echoes from the State Convention," by Miss Elizabeth Harris, of the state force, and "The Maryland, Worcester District Religious Canvass," by A. H. Burnett. Then come the departmental conferences, following which the report of the nominating committee will be read and officers of the association elected for the ensuing year.

Rev. LeRoy Halbert of Cooperstown will open the closing session at 7:30 with a service of song and devotion and will call for a report of the resolutions committee. Next on the program is an address by Miss Harris, whose topic will be "The Young People, the Challenge of the Church." Miss Harris is an enthusiastic worker and her remarks will be of interest to all Sunday school workers. Secretary Lange, of the local Y. M. C. A., will follow with an address on "A Community Program of Religious Education." The convention will come to a close with prayer and benediction.

All Oneontans interested in Sunday school work are cordially invited to attend the convention, especially the evening session, which should prove of especial interest. The local organization will make arrangements to provide for all out-of-town delegates who must stay in Oneonta over night. It is the aim of the association to have every school in the two counties send to the convention at least one auto party, composed of pastor, superintendent, and two teachers.

The Worcester-Oneonta bus will make special Saturday night trips, leaving Worcester at 6:50 p. m., arriving in Oneonta at 7:50 p. m. and will leave for the return trip from the Home-Grown lunch at 11 p. m.

LEGION BANQUET HELD

Cooperstown's Ex-Soldiers Open Former Parshall Restaurant With Largely-Attended Banquet Last Evening.

Cooperstown, Nov. 1. — Parshall's restaurant, which recently was purchased by the local post of the American Legion, was formally opened at a large, well-attended banquet held in the restaurant tonight. Ex-servicemen turned out in full force to give the restaurant a good send-off, and prospects appear bright for the success of the venture.

The dinner was a good one and well served, the principal items on the attractive menu being chicken on the half shell, mashed potatoes and lettuce salad. Following the dinner, Robert Lutes, commander of the local post of the American Legion, who served overseas as a sergeant in Company G, took the floor and in a brief talk predicted that if Cooperstown continued to support the American Legion lunch in the future, it was assured of a great success.

The first speaker was Attorney James J. Byard Jr., and he was followed by Clement G. Tennant, George H. Corley, Dr. F. J. Atwell and W. D. Johnson. The general theme of all the speakers was the part Cooperstown's sons played in the war and the part that they were playing in reconstruction. The post was congratulated on putting itself into some useful field of endeavor, and many compliments were paid to the neat appearance of the restaurant. All the speakers were in a humorous vein and the room was kept ringing with laughter. Captain Royal C. Johnson of Oneonta, who, with Mrs. Johnson, was a guest at the banquet, was called on to give a few remarks and voiced his appreciation of the part Cooperstown had played in the great war and predicted a real success for the restaurant in the village.

Dan Conklin, formerly connected with an Oneonta restaurant, has been engaged as manager of the American Legion lunch, and has already commenced his duties. The purchase was financed through the generosity of many Cooperstown citizens, who willingly took the stock of the company. Now that the restaurant is under way, numerous improvements having been made to the interior, it is hoped that the patronage will encourage the Legion men in their business venture.

Halloween Social.

On Saturday evening, the Standard Deacons of the Methodist Episcopal church journeyed to the Wilber Lake farm, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls. There were 29 in the party and the trip was made in a lumber wagon. After reaching there, the girls enjoyed games and a large bonfire. At a late hour a sumptuous repast was served by the hostess, Miss Lydia Ingalls. Then, at a late hour, the guests were conveyed home. Everyone had an excellent time and all agreed the evening was a very enjoyable one.

Masquerade Party Saturday Evening.
Miss Beatrice Mellus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mellus, gave a masquerade party to 20 young friends Saturday evening, at her home, 92 Clinton street. The evening was spent with games and dancing, after which refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests departed, reporting having spent a happy evening.

"A few minutes more, Peggy dear, and Daddy will be back with the Kemp's Balsam. Then you can go to sleep and forget that horrid cough!"

HIGGS LOSES RIGHT ARM

Injured When Alighting from Train Last Evening — Brought to Fox Hospital for Surgical Care.

William H. Higgs of Sidney, employed as a mason and bricklayer at Endicott, was seriously injured in alighting from the evening train at his home last night, he having come to Sidney to vote. As the train pulled into the station he stepped from the coach before the train came to a stop, and in some manner slipped and fell under the wheels. His right arm was badly crushed and nearly severed from the body. Dr. LeCombs of Sidney attended him and amputated the injured member and upon his advice the injured man was brought to the Fox hospital here for surgical care. He suffered some slight bruises about the head and body, but these injuries were none of them of a serious character.

Mr. Higgs is a man about 35 years of age and has resided for 25 years or more in Sidney and is well known in that vicinity. His wife and son, Albert, accompanied him to Oneonta last evening and remained here to be near him, although it is not thought that his injuries are of a fatal character, unless complications arise.

A daughter, Miss Mildred Higgs, is a trained nurse with headquarters at the Fox hospital at the time of her father's arrival. Mr. Higgs' family consists of a wife and six children. At a late hour last night it was said at the hospital that his condition was considered satisfactory.

Masquerade Halloween Party.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan, with electric self-starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires, front and rear, for every day in the year, has no equal as a family car. Just as popular on the farm as it is in the city. In fact, it fits the family demands in every vocation of life. Large, roomy seats, finely upholstered, plate glass windows make it an open car in pleasant weather, while in any and inclement weather it becomes a closed car, dust-proof and rain-proof. It is not only comfortable, but really cozy, and above all, economical in operation and maintenance, and has all the Ford merits of strength and durability.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and gives about 25 times as much relief.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant, and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Ethel Scatchard Memorial

At a recent meeting of the Woman's club of Oneonta, a committee was appointed to inaugurate a movement toward the erection of a suitable memorial to Miss Ethel Scatchard, who was the only woman of our city to make the supreme sacrifice in the World War.

She was a devoted citizen. She was a soldier and wore the soldier's uniform. She was a lover of nature, of birds, of flowers, and all that was beautiful. Her greatest wish, the compelling force, behind all she did, was to make herself useful.

Therefore, in a memorial to her, let us try to embody the spirit of her to whom it shall stand for all time, with the spirit of the women of Oneonta by whom it shall be erected.

Therefore, we would suggest the placing of native shrubs in Neahwa park as a background for a simple drinking fountain, combining as it would usefulness and community service, her two strongest characteristics.

Therefore, that every woman's organization, every girl's society, and every woman and girl in the city or community be given an opportunity to give whatever is convenient to them, as a memorial and a message of trust to the Oneonta women of future generations.

If this idea meets with the approval of your organization, will you appoint a committee of one to confer with a similar committee from other women's organizations of the city, this committee to discuss and outline a plan for financing the movement.

Please notify Mrs. Arthur Seynolt at 14 Grand Street, Oneonta, of the appointment.

(Signed)
Mrs. MARCUS C. HEMSTREET,
President of Woman's Club
COMMITTEE. Mrs. Roscoe Briggs,
Mrs. O. C. McCrum, Mrs. Arthur Seynolt.

How Sale Proves Successful

The 4th annual sale conducted at the Cookskill fair grounds last Friday by D. C. Dow was very successful, considering the time of year, the uncertain market, and the high price of feed. Although the day was cold and rainy, a large number of farmers came in to the sale. D. H. Spahr of Colchester purchased the top price cow and calf, Jesse R. R. Walcott of a new-born cow with a record of 109 pounds to her credit for one day was struck off to him for $40 and he will for $10. The buyers were from Schenectady, Montgomery, and Albany counties.

BIG IRRIGATION PLANS

Pacification of Yaqui Indians Solves Big Problem.

Recent pacification of the warlike Yaqui Indians of the Mexican state of Sonora has allowed the state authorities to turn from one of their worst problems to new tasks of developing irrigation projects and providing homes and crops. Gov. Flavio A. Berquez of Sonora recently told the Associated Press.

"Pacifying the Yaqui Indians solves the greatest problem Sonora has had to meet," he said. "These Indians have been a thorn in the side of the Sonora and the Mexican governments for 55 years."

"Yaqui chiefs recently conferred with me here and assured me that the Indians are completely pacified and ready to settle down and grow crops on reservation lands we have provided for them. The government has set aside between 20,000 and 30,000 acres of the finest land in the famous Yaqui valley for their use as a reservation. Many of the ancient irrigation ditches have been rebuilt by the government so the Indian can have water. New ditches have been opened and more will be built with federal and state funds."

"Irrigation is the basis of Sonora's welfare. Water only is needed to reclaim vast areas of Sonora land which is as rich as the Nile bottoms and as good and even better than the famous Imperial valley."

"Schools are as vital to the welfare of Sonora as water and we are making extensive plans for school extension. Included in our new budget is $2,500,000 for schools."

WINS HOMESTEAD TITLE

Woman Got It After a Battle of Ten Years.

Mrs. Maud Schneider of Placerville, Cal., has won the homestead on which she filed ten years ago.

Mrs. Schneider was teaching school when she filed on her claim. She lived on the homestead, but was offered a better salary in Placerville the next year. So she spent only the weekends on her farm.

Samuel Butler, receiver of the land office at Sacramento, held a successful residence when she accompanied to prove up. Registrar Henry P. Andrews held she was entitled to her home. The commissioner of the general land office up'd Butler, but Assistant Secretary of the Interior Volney Davis reversed the commissioner and gave Mrs. Schneider title to her homestead.

Better Than It Looked.

The bride next door is very fond of my daughter, Anna, so we invited her to the little one's birthday party. An hour or so before the guests arrived she came in and presented Anna with a birthday cake, saying it was her first attempt at baking.

When she left, I turned to mother (not knowing I had a listener) and said: "Well, that's certainly a fine. Hope it tastes better than it looks."

Later as the refreshments were being served, all seated at the table, the bride next to me, Anna, replied, "O mother, Mrs. Smith's cake does taste much better than it looks, doesn't it?"

An Inspiration.

"What has possessed Mrs. Grubben this week that she is so crumbly and disconcerted?"

"She has been reading the papers and I think she is trying to drive her boarders into a bracer state."

Voters, Attention!

Voters who are in doubt as to the proper method of marking their ballots for next Tuesday's election, will be welcomed at the Republican headquarters, over the Corner Bookstore, 206 Main street, where full instructions will gladly be given. Sample ballots will also be provided for those who desire. It is urged to come personally, phone 113. Rooms open both day and evening.

PETROGRAD IS 'NO MAN'S LAND'

Once Gay Capital of Russia Is Now a Nightmare of Horror and Death.

HOUSES WRECKED FOR FUEL

Death stalks on every side, waiting for winter to aid in the grim work of mowing down thousands.

Paris.—A graphic, eye-witness description of the fearful conditions existing in Petrograd is given by the Finnish Red Cross in an appeal just issued to the Red Cross Societies of the World. It is accompanied by documents prepared by Professor Zeider formerly head of the Petrograd Red Cross, but now a refugee in Finland.

The documents tell the story of the agony of a dying city. Petrograd's present population based on the food cards, now is from 500,000 to 600,000, and the former capital of the czars is described as having shrunk to one-fourth its pre-war size. The report says:

"Death stalks on every side, waiting for winter to aid in the grim work of mowing down the silent, hungry sick, and dying by thousands. With streets and houses choked with filth that is already spreading spotted and intermittent typhus the cold weather will finish the task with pneumonia and abdominal typhus."

Wreck Houses for Fuel.

"The fuel situation was never so bad. Wooden houses have been torn down for fuel. The material is distributed equally among the population but during the night the more active citizens steal the quota of wood from others."

"Attempts to repair the streets, which are full of holes, owing to bursting water pipes, failed because the wood blocks used for pavement had been stolen during the night for fuel."

"Lighting is allowed only two half hours each day, and then not all houses are supplied on the lines furnished by the authorities. Kerosene costs 450 rubles. There are no candles. Most homes are in darkness."

"There is no means of transporting things by waterway, because the barges were long since demolished for fuel. The railway transportation is devoted almost exclusively to the distribution of flour. Only 200 persons are permitted to leave Petrograd daily by passenger train."

"Workmen receive half a pound of bread daily; sometimes other food is given. The prices of foodstuffs continue to rise to incredible heights. Many products have almost completely disappeared from the markets."

"The mortality has reached a startling rate, owing to the lack of food and the insanitary conditions of houses and streets. Fat has left the majority of the population long ago. At present the muscular tissue is consumed. The faces of the people have taken on a waxlike color."

City of Ghastly Horror.

"In order to fill their stomachs with something, they drink different substitutes for tea and coffee, or great quantities of plain water, resulting in puffiness and dropsy, which change the expression of the face so that even old acquaintances are unrecognizable."

"There is no fuel, no hot water or baths, no janitor, doorkeeper or servants for cleaning yards, streets, buildings, or for the removal of garbage."

"Petrograd is facing a dreadful phantom of epidemics. Thousands are already dying every month of spotted, abdominal, and intermittent typhus, diphtheria, Spanish influenza, smallpox, pulmonary disease, hunger and exhaustion."

"The hospitals are overflowing with drooping victims, mostly women, elderly men and children."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive ways, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit.

Key Ceremony in London Tower Centuries Old

London.—Few Americans who have visited the tower of London have ever witnessed the ceremony of the keys, though it has taken place nightly for many centuries.

The yeoman porter, with an escort of guards, with a key in his hand, waits at two pence a night to carry the keys, and, broad daylight or no, follows the beggar with the lantern.

"Halt, who comes there?" demands the sentry.

"The keys," replies the yeoman porter.

"Whose keys?" asks the sentry.

"King George's keys," is the answer.

At the end of the ceremony the yeoman porter takes off his hat and says "God preserve King George," and guard and escort reply, "Amen." Then the band or drums and fife play "God Save the King" and beggars sound the "Last Post."

CHECK CIGARS AT THEATER

New Scheme in Kentucky Moving Picture House Saves Cost of Sweeper.

Paducah, Ky.—A moving picture theater in Bardwell has adopted a first aid to economy.

On the right of the entrance to the theater is a check stand for cigars.

As men go into the place, instead of littering up the front of the show with their cigar butts they put them in little jars on the wall and take a check out showing the number of the jar.

When the show is over the butts are lighted up again and a dime or a quarter is saved, and the owner of the theater is saved the expense of hiring a negro boy to sweep up the butts next morning.

There to Catch Voters.

Mobile, Ala.—When women stepped into the voting booth at Whistler, Mobile's largest suburb, to vote in a school election, they found all the comforts of home. Each booth was equipped with powder puffs, mirrors and other articles of the dressing table.

WIDOW PREFERRED TO MEET DEATH AT HOME

"For many years I suffered from stomach trouble. All the doctors I tried helped me but little. All said I would have to go to the hospital and be operated on for gall stones or I would not live much longer. I told them I preferred to meet death at home. One day I picked up an advertisement of May's Wonderful Remedy and since taking a course of it more than a year ago have not had a single pain in my stomach, have good appetite and can eat anything. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the muscular tract and cures the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose with food or money refunded—Miller-Strong Drug company."
